

COLOMBIAN OLYMPIC COMMITTEE STATUTES

PREAMBLE

"We, the Colombian Olympic Committee, from now on "COC", an organization belonging to the Olympic Movement, duly represented by the undersigned, hereby undertake to respect the provisions of the Olympic Charter and the World Anti- Doping Code and to abide by the decisions of the International Olympic Committee, from now on "COI".

We undertake, in accordance with our mission and role at national level, to participate in actions that promote peace and to support women in sport. We also undertake to support and encourage the promotion of sports ethics, the fight against doping and to demonstrate a responsible concern for environmental issues.

CHAPTER I

NATURE, DOMICILE, OBJECTIVES, CONSTITUTION, AUTONOMY

ARTICLE 1. The COC shall be an independent, non- profit- making body under private law, established for an indefinite period, incorporated and legally domiciled in Colombia and having an international structure and functions.

In order to fulfill its mission, the COC can cooperate with governmental bodies, with which it shall achieve harmonious relations. However, it shall not associate itself with any activity which be in contradiction with the Olympic Charter. The COC may also cooperate with nongovernmental bodies.

The COC must preserve its autonomy and resist all pressures of any kind, including but not limited to political, legal, religious, or economic pressures, which may prevent it from complying with the Olympic Charter.

ARTICLE 2. The COC shall have its domicile in Bogota DC, Republic of Colombia.

ARTICLE 3. The COC shall reject any form of discrimination.
